POCAHONTAS COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL

71 WARRIOR

The theme chosen for this first edition of the WARRIOR is "This Is Your School." This treasure chest of memories is directed by Mrs. Fay Moore with the assistance of Mrs. Pat Marsh, Mrs. Alice Irvine, and Mr. Ralph Cobun. In it, you will see the work of Debra Stewart, Steve Weatherholt, Tom McLaughlin, and David Horne, senior editors; Lori Rose and Shirley Fowler, junior editors. We wish to express our appreciation to the patrons of the school, the administration, the faculty, and the entire student body for their cooperation in furthering the interests of the WARRIOR.

Through the efforts of an interested school patron, Mr. John Hazlitt, the flag that flies over the new Pocahontas County High School is one that originally flew over our nation's capitol building. Students displaying our flag are Susan Viers, Rick Wilmore, Dennis Dever, and Rick Moore, class presidents.

ADMINISTRATION

Taylor V· Cremeans
Superintendant Pocahontas County Schools

On behalf of your Board of Education I want to congratulate you Seniors on being the first graduates of Pocahontas County High School.

I feel certain that this year has been a profitable experience for each of you as you have worked in a united county effort to accomplish those skills which will enable you to do better in college and become a more effective member of the community.

Best wishes to each of you as you go your individual way in pursuit of further academic excellence.

Sincerely,

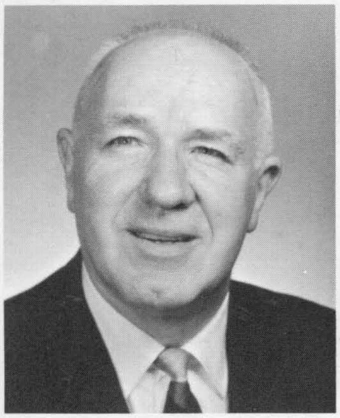

Taylor V. Cremeans

Pocahontas County
High School

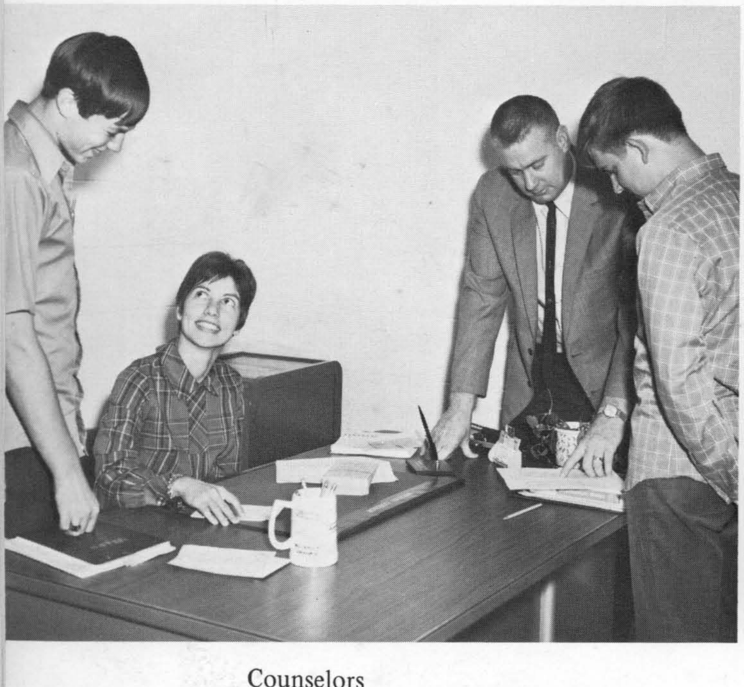

Fredric Smith, Principal

This first year in the Pocahontas County High School has been a great success in itself, and promises many fine years to come. Your part in maintaining a scholarly atmosphere, developing a strong school spirit, and establishing a proud new tradition accounts for much of this success. I wish to thank you for your cooperation in this endeavor.

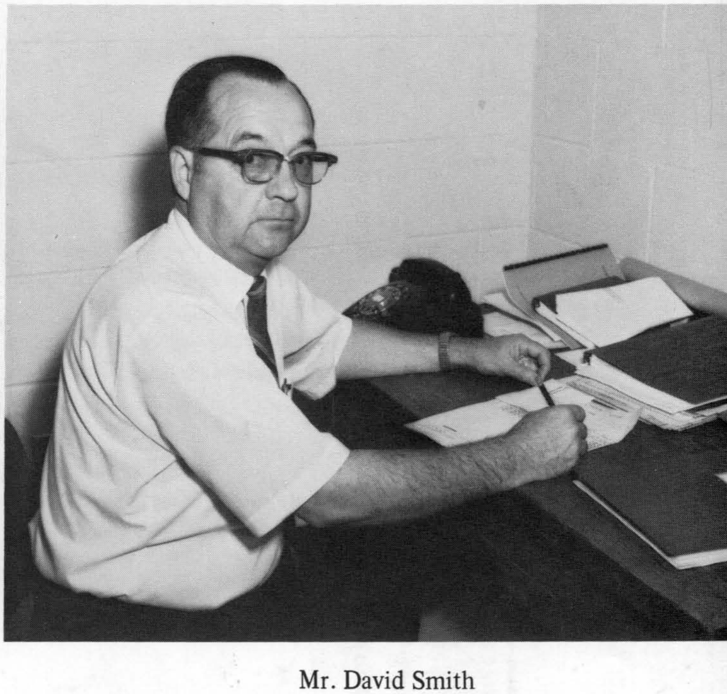

To you who are seniors, it is my sincere hope that vocational and scholastic skills and personal values acquired during this year will help you achieve your own future goals. May you find in this book a reflection of fond memories and happy days spent in Pocahontas County High School.
